

Dealing with Anti-Semitism and Anti-Zionism on Campus

Sunday, April 9th @ 1:00 PM
AEPi House
Lunch will be served

Michael Rothmann
Co-Chair of the Committee
against Anti-Semitism, Decalogue Society of Lawyers

Topic: "Hostile Learning Environment, What is it and is it Trumped by Free Speech?"

We will discuss Title VI, what it means, how OCR defines it, how to file such complaints and what schools are supposed to do when they encounter such situations. I will then transition into free speech. Northwestern is a private school, and while free speech applies to public schools, it is important for students to grasp the parameters of free speech.

Alison Pure-Slovin
Midwest Director, Simon
Wiesenthal Center

Event Discussion Facilitator and program partner of AEPi

Alison Pure-Slovin, a native Chicagoan, is the Midwest Director of the Simon Wiesenthal Center, an international human rights NGO, and has organized 'Combat Hate Conferences' for AEPi brothers across the country. Alison is passionate about her work of defending the human rights of all people

Adam Sheppard
Officer and Editorial Board
Member, Decalogue
Society of Lawyers

Topic: "Students Rights in University Disciplinary Proceedings."

Adam Sheppard is a partner at Sheppard Law Firm, P.C. which concentrates in defense of criminal charges and also represents students in university disciplinary proceedings. Mr. Sheppard has published various articles on students' rights in disciplinary proceedings and lectured to law school classes and at other seminars on this topic.